

Lowville Cream Cheese Festival

Saturday, September 19, 2009

Music Line-up:

11 AM – 12 PM	Terry Mostyn, solo
12:30 PM – 2:00 PM	Panigma Steel Drum Band
2:30 PM – 4:00 PM	Bad Weather Blues Band
4:30 PM – 6:00 PM	Terry Mostyn Band

Terry Mostyn 11 AM to Noon

Terry is a New Jersey native who has been playing and singing since he was a young boy. He has resided in Lewis County, NY for many years and his music has transitioned to Celtic and rock influences. He is noted for sing-alongs and crowd participation as he plays clubs and bars in northern New York. Terry is at work on his latest CD, Circles, and he has recently toured in Ireland and been included on a CD of top Irish singer/songwriters. Terry will play solo at 11 AM and be joined by his band to close the day at 4:30 PM. Get more info on Terry Mostyn at <http://www.terrymostyn.com/>

Panigma Steel Drum Band 12:30 PM to 2:00 PM

Over the last five years Panigma Steel Band has become one of the hottest steel bands in the Northeast. Comprised of professional musicians and educators from Binghamton, NY, Panigma performs high-energy shows with plenty of audience participation that keeps listeners engaged throughout the entire performance. Panigma takes popular and traditional music and plays it with a Caribbean twist to mold it into music that is guaranteed to make the audience dance and have a great time. Panigma enjoys playing for all types of events including festivals, corporate events, colleges and weddings. Come and enjoy something very different at the Cream Cheese Festival. Check out Panigma at: <http://www.panigma.com/live/>

Bad Weather Blues Band 2:30 PM to 4 PM

Hailing from the fabulous city of Binghamton, NY this blues sextet features the best of Traditional and Modern blues. From covers of Elmore James and Muddy Waters to Johnny Lang and the Vaughn Brothers. Toss in some Jump Blues, Swing, Soul and Funk and you get an entire evening of almost every blues genre to date. Remember, "the blues is the roots, all the rest is the fruits." This Band loves to play the Blues and its obvious they have as much fun as their fans.

Bad Weather Blues plays regular at the big joints in Binghamton and throughout the southern tier. They can also be seen at the Dinosaur Barbecue in Syracuse and they are following up their Cream Cheese Performance with a night show at the Pine Tree Inn in Brantingham. You will love this band and you can catch them twice in one day in Lewis County!! Check out the band at their website at <http://badweatherblues.net/>.

Terry Mostyn Band 4:30 PM to 6 PM

Terry returns with his band to wrap up the day on the Cream Cheese Festival main stage.